

House Resolution No. 3205

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives always welcome the opportunity to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of Show-Me State residents who admirably have contributed an exceptional amount of time and energy to helping students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Margaret "Peggy" Sanderson has attained considerable distinction as an elementary gifted teacher for School of the Osage R-II School District, an educational calling that she will draw to a close at the end of the 2006-2007 school year in well-deserved retirement after six years of service; and

Whereas, an educator for twenty-three years, Peggy Sanderson previously served as a teacher in Holton, Kansas, and Des Moines, Iowa, schools; and

Whereas, a native of Fairfield, Iowa, Peggy Sanderson graduated from Mediapolis High School in Mediapolis, Iowa, in 1962 before continuing her education at the University of Iowa, where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in elementary education and psychology; Kansas State University, where she earned a Master of Science degree in gifted education; and Washburn University, where she completed a certificate in learning disabilities; and

Whereas, Peggy Sanderson has helped ensure the highest standards of conduct and performance in her chosen field of endeavor through her participation in the Kansas Gifted and Talented organization, and she has proven to be a good citizen in her hometown through her membership in the Eldon Nazarene Church, for which she teaches Sunday School, is a Bible Study leader, and is a Women's Ministry leader; and

Whereas, Peggy Sanderson is the beloved wife of Glen Sanderson; the loving mother of Kristi, Eric, and Dean; and the devoted grandmother of Holden and Esther:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the personal and professional accomplishments garnered by Margaret Sanderson as an educator at School of the Osage and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Margaret "Peggy" Sanderson.
